

Tiger in town

Joel Zumaya, the flame-throwing relief pitcher for the Detroit Tigers, dropped by the Birmingham office of orthodontists Tyler, Dumas, Reyes on Saturday to greet fans and sign autographs. More than 400 people attended the event, which included a fast pitch station, carnival games, prizes, hot dogs and ice cream. 'We wanted to give back to our patients,' said Dr. John Dumas. 'Bringing in Joel Zumaya is very exciting for the kids -- and it was a memorable day of fun for everyone.'
